NEW CARD TYPE - DUNGEONS

Dungeon cards are double-sized, to give lots of room for both art and text and to make SURE you don’t mix them into other decks.

While a Dungeon card is in play, it affects ALL the players.

Some dungeons may let you gain levels for entering, leaving, or doing certain things. These level increases cannot give you the winning level unless the card says they can.

When a Dungeon card is discarded, follow its instructions about reversing effects, discarding extra cards, and so on.

In Munchkin: Marvel Edition, you can only be in one dungeon at a time. The face-up Dungeon card is considered the dungeon in play. Discarded Dungeon cards are placed face-down beside the draw deck.

SPECIAL "EDGE CASE" NOTE: When you leave one dungeon and enter another, there is never a moment when you are in neither one. This means that if some special effect is legal in both dungeons, but not in base Munchkin: Marvel Edition, you do not lose it when you move from one dungeon to the other.

ALTERNATE DUNGEON RULE: If you really like a particular dungeon, play it and leave out all the Portal cards.

SETTING UP THE DUNGEONS

The Dungeon cards form their own deck. Start the game with one Dungeon card turned face-up. This is the dungeon that you are in. To choose it, you can either:

(1) Pick one randomly, or
(2) Let the player who won the last game pick a starting dungeon, or
(3) Let the player who LOST the last game pick a starting dungeon, or
(4) Just agree on one you like.

However you pick the first Dungeon card, it’s likely to change. So shuffle the rest of the Dungeon cards and put the deck face-down, ready for the moment the munchkins stumble through a Portal . . .

NEW CARD TYPE - PORTALS

Portals are Doors . . . very special Doors. There are eight Portal Door cards. As such, they are titled as Portals to remind you of their effects. A few other cards, including some Monster and Treasure cards, also have dungeon-changing effects, even though they are not Portal cards.

When you draw a Portal face-up, you must immediately follow its instructions. Portals will usually direct you to discard the current dungeon and replace it with a new one. After you follow the Portal’s instructions, draw another face-up Door card.
When you draw a Portal face-down, you have a choice:

1. Turn it face-up immediately and follow its instructions. After you follow the instructions, draw another face-down Door card.
2. Put it in your hand. You may play it later, but only if (A) it is your turn, (B) you are not in combat, and (C) you haven’t already played a Portal or other dungeon-changing card on that turn. When you play it, follow its instructions and immediately draw a face-down Door card.

Remember: When you play a Portal, you always draw another Door card to replace it. If the original Portal was drawn face-up, the replacement Door card is drawn face-up. If the original Portal was face-down, so is the replacement.

CHANGING DUNGEONS WITHOUT A PORTAL

At any time during your own turn, you may discard four cards from your hand and “discover an exit.” Discard the current dungeon and draw a new one to replace it.

INFINITY GEMS

_Munchkin Marvel 3: Cosmic Chaos_ includes the final two Infinity Gems, with the first two found in _Munchkin: Marvel Edition_ and the second two in _Munchkin Marvel 2: Mystic Mayhem_. Combined with the special promo card the Infinity Gauntlet, you now have the chance to become the most powerful being in the Marvel Universe. Individually, each of the Gems is a powerful tool in its own right. But if you are clever enough to assemble all six while in possession of the Infinity Gauntlet, you can win the game immediately regardless of current Level!

- Infinity Gauntlet
  - +1 for each Infinity Gem you have in play. If you control all 6 Infinity Gems, you win the game!
- MIND GEM
  - You may have any number of powers, regardless of Rank.
  - Once per combat, you may discard a power for a +5 Bonus.
- POWER GEM
  - +2 Bonus
- REALITY GEM
  - You are immune to Traps and Bad Stuff that include losing or discarding cards and death.
  - You are immune...well sort of.
- SOUL GEM
  - You may have any number of Allies. Once per combat, you may discard an Ally for a +5 Bonus.
- SPACE GEM
  - Once per turn, you may discard a card. If you do, discard the Dungeon in play, and draw a new one to replace it.
- TIME GEM
  - At the start of your turn, you may discard a card. If you do, you may search the Door discards for a Monster card and add it to your hand.
